

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

SPREAD THE WORD

THE CLASS OF 2011 should know how important it is to get covered and stay healthy after school. Are your friends graduating? Make sure they know, too.

Tell Your Friends

- Talk to your friends, family, neighbors, and classmates about the benefits of getting covered after graduation.
- Invite your friends to join Young Invincibles on Facebook, and remind them to get covered: www.Facebook.com/together.invincible
- Host a Graduation Party: Pass out flyers at the door.

Share the Toolkit

- Email it to friends, family, and student organizations. Ask your school and student government to distribute the Toolkit to all seniors.

Other Ways to Share

- Submit a health care education video or written testimonial about why it's important for you to get health insurance after graduation.
- Send an E-card to your friends and share the site with them. Have them take our health care quiz!
- Download some handy talking points to help you start talking about health care in your community.

Contact these folks if you have more questions:

- US Department of Labor: www.dol.gov/esba or 866.444.3272
- Visit http://www.naic.org/state_web_map.htm for your state's insurance department's contact information
- Visit www.healthcare.gov for links to state consumer assistance programs and other resources