

WASHINGTON, DC - Rep. Welch has been reappointed to the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Welch, who served on the committee during his first term in Congress, will also serve on two of its subcommittees: National Security and Foreign Affairs, and Domestic Policy.

In total, Welch will serve on three committees and five subcommittees during the 111th Congress. They are as follows:

- House Committee on Energy and Commerce
 - o Subcommittee on Energy and Environment
 - o Subcommittee on Communications, Technology and the Internet
 - o Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations
- House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform
 - o Subcommittee on National Security and Foreign Affairs
 - o Subcommittee on Domestic Policy
- House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct